SECTION II: Answer all questions: (8 marks each)

1. Polygamy or certain aspects of it is something that has long been practiced in many cultures across the world. We even see polygamous men in Scripture. Please give a Biblical position on marriage being between one woman and one man.
2. A couple walks into your office. The young man is from a very traditional background, having grown up in the village most of his life. His new found love is from a cosmopolitan city in North America and hails from a very affluent family. They are excited to share with you their desire to get married. What are the major challenges that you would anticipate for this marriage (cross-cultural and inter-racial), and how would you go about counseling with them to address those issues?
3. What is the sexual revolution? How has it affected marriage and family?
4. One of the biggest challenges facing marriage today is Divorce. Discuss the effects of divorce on the children in a broken marriage.
