

DOLD703 - CULTIVATING SELF LEADERSHIP

FINAL EXAM 2020

Instructor: David Oginde (Rev) PhD

Instructions

1. Answer Question 1 and ANY TWO other questions.
2. You are NOT to refer to any texts, notes, or any other material.
3. You have two hours to complete the exam.

Question 1 (Compulsory)

“Crisis situations can overwhelm even the most experienced leaders, presenting unexpected, complex scenarios that evolve at a fast pace and in several directions.”
(Daniel Diermeier, May 21, 2020. Chicago Business Review)

Using the lessons and principles learnt in the Self leadership course, provide a scholarly discussion on the place of Self Leadership in times of crisis. 1200 words.

10 marks

Question 2

If you cannot master your passions, you cannot be a leader.

To what extent do you agree or disagree? In 700-900 words, give a scholarly response with practical illustrations.

5 marks

David Oginde

Question 3

From the various theories and principles of Self-Leadership, what nexus do you see between self-efficacy and faith in God in accomplishing leadership tasks? Discuss in 700-900 words

5 marks

Question 4

One of your most trusted and highly gifted workers cannot seem to cope with colleagues, no matter in which department they are placed. The staff member is always entering into fights with various ones. The colleagues are ready to quit unless something is done. What Self-leadership factors do you think are at play here? How should you address this situation? Discuss in 700-900 words.

5 marks

Question 5

As the head of your institution, you discover that there is a major fallout between your Board Chair and the Project Manager over the implementation of a project that is dear to your heart. The Chair has instructed the Manager that the project should be discontinued. What principles of Self-Leadership would you say are at play here and how would you handle this situation? Give a scholarly response in 700-900 words

5 marks