

PUBLIC SPEAKING COM 105 Online

Section one questions are compulsory. Answer any other THREE questions from Section two.

Question One

PAC University is among 20 other universities organizing an education expo around the country in an effort to encourage enrollment to its various courses. You have been selected to be part of the team that will be doing several presentation as part of the expo tour. With the aid of examples, demonstrate any FIVE steps you will use to establish credibility among your listeners. (10 Marks)

Question Two

As the PAC University Communication Officer, you will be mandated to represent the institution in different for a presenting you with an opportunity to speak to your audiences. Examine any FIVE of these for a pointing out the preparation you will undertake for each. (10 Marks).

Question Three

- a) As a professional communicator you have to be cognizant of all the shared elements in all communication. Demonstrate your understanding of these FIVE elements in a public speaking event. (5 Marks)
- b) The average person utters between 80 and 120 words per minute during a speaking event. As part of the university expo in question one, write a FIVE minutes speech complete with an introduction and conclusion reflecting your expo mandate. (5 Marks)

Question Four

During the PAC University career week you are tasked make a presentation on careers available to communication students.

- a) Write a FIVE minutes speech on careers available to communication graduates (5 Marks)
- b) Discuss how you will employ the TWO types of visual aids to assist you achieve your objectives for the speech above (5 Marks)

Question Five

- a) Using examples, examine FIVE steps you would undertake in planning for your presentation in question four (above) (5 marks)
- b) Every speech must have an introduction and a conclusion. Use examples to explain FIVE techniques you can make your introduction and conclusion memorable. (5Marks)