

DCO 301: GENDER COMMUNICATION AND DEVELOPMENT

ONLINE CLASSES

QUESTION ONE

Gender relations and patriarchy in different societies are not happening in the vacuum of space but anchored on real historical events. Examine two current inventions in the course of human development that have played a key role in the advancement of gender and development as a human discourse. (10 marks)

QUESTION TWO

Patriarchy is associated with an attack on men for being men. This is based on the assumption that men benefit from patriarchy equally while women have suffered under it equally. This position is ignorant. Using relevant examples, evaluate patriarchy within your context.

(10 marks)

QUESTION THREE

With the use of examples, give an analysis of FIVE disadvantages of colonization to women and the effect on the gender discourse in the contemporary world of an African woman.

(10 marks)

QUESTION FOUR

Stereotypes are generalization about groups of people that are applied to individual group members simply because they belong to that group. Gender stereotypes are generalization about men and women. Using examples, demonstrate the effects of any two categories of gender stereotypes in a professional setting.

(10 marks)

QUESTION FIVE

- A) Using relevant examples, give an in-depth examination of gender and tokenism within an African leadership set up. (5 marks)
- B) You are a lead communication consultant who has just received a contract from a women's organization that is struggling with presentation skills as they attempt to pitch for business to different organizations. As part of your training on presentation skills, discuss the practical presentation skills that would inform part of your syllabus. (5 marks)