➤ Answer question ONE and any other TWO questions

SECTION A (20 Marks)

- a) Briefly describe man's predicament as a result of sin and identify its remedy (4 Marks).
- b) Salvation is a cooperative work between God and man. (Using biblical examples) Outline the various roles each party plays in order to lead to conversion (4 Marks).
- c) Outline and briefly explain the aspects of sanctification in the journey of salvation (4 marks). What applicational level is there after the outlining and the explanation?)
- d) Distinguish between the following two terms as they relate to salvation (4 marks). (after the distinguishing, then what?)
  - i. Adoption
  - ii. Justification
- e) (Using scriptural evidence) explain briefly the evidence of regeneration in the believer's life (4 marks).

SECTION B (20 marks). Choose ANY TWO questions from this section.

- 1. Evaluate at least five wrong views held about regeneration. Clarify the correct meaning of regeneration in each case as clearly as possible. (10 marks)
- 2. Explain how the assurance of future glorification will affect your life as a believer. (10 Marks)
- 3. A young believer is struggling to understand how he can be assured of his salvation. Sad enough, the believer is perturbed with the issue of the possibility of losing his salvation due to challenges he is encountering in his journey of salvation. How can you help the believer to be assured of his salvation? (10 Marks)
