SECTION B (30 marks). Choose ANY TWO questions from this section.

1. Evaluate FIVE wrong views held about regeneration. Clarify the correct meaning of regeneration in each case as clearly as possible. (15 marks)
2. While the fact of our glorification rests upon the objective work of Christ in history, our assurance of future glorification is based upon certain terms that arise out of the work of Christ as it applies to us as believers. Briefly identify and describe at least FIVE biblical terms that assure us of future glorification. Explain how the assurance of future glorification will affect your life as a believer. (15 Marks)
3. Critically evaluate the Deterministic view of election and show its implications. (15 marks)
4. A young believer is struggling to understand how he can be assured of his salvation. Sad enough, the believer is perturbed with the issue of the possibility of losing his salvation due to challenges he is encountering in his journey of salvation. How can you help the believer to be assured of his salvation? (15 Marks)
