Question One

Case Study for question 1.

The Tamu Tamu organization has fired its CEO, who claimed to be a Christian, but he shamelessly does not honor his word or keep his promises. The other leaders in the organization have copied his wrong moral and ethical behavior. You are now chosen as a new CEO in the organization since you have an established record of practicing distinctive qualities in spiritual leadership in diverse environmental contexts. Your primary goal is to transform Tamu Tamu into a good moral and ethical standing entity in society.

 - a). Discuss the distinctive qualities in spiritual leadership that you will use to transform the organization. (5 marks)
 - b). Critically analyse the relevance of spiritual leadership in addressing African leadership challenges. (5 marks)

Section B: Answer ANY ONE questions (10 marks)

2. Examine the practice of inward spiritual disciplines in Leadership and its application in spiritual growth in Africa. (10 marks)
3. Discuss the theology of spiritual formation in leadership, especially in the context of African leadership. (10 marks)
4. Examine two biblical role models of leadership in spiritual formation and their application in African Christian leaders. (10 marks)
