INSTRUCTIONS

- Answer ALL Questions in Section A.
- Answer ANY TWO Questions in Section B.

SECTION A: ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS

Emily graduated with a Diploma in Youth Ministry from PAC University. She was posted to work as a youth Pastor with the “Catch them young international assembly” in Malindi. On getting there, she realized that the area has a high population of young people and is characterized by many social ills. Most of the youth despise going to church because they feel ignored and uncared for by the church. When Emily suggested that the Church should shift their youth ministry focus from the youth in the church only, to reaching out to the youth in the community, she was vehemently opposed by the elders.

- a) Describe a relevant youth ministry model that will care for the youth Emily is working with. (5 marks)
- b) Justify any three responses that Emily might give to those that insist that youth ministry should be focused on the youth that attend church only. Use Biblical references to support your answers. (5 marks)
- c) As a graduate of youth ministry, explain how Emily can convince the church elders to adopt the model you have suggested above. (10 marks)

SECTION B: ANSWER ANY TWO QUESTIONS

1. Using biblical examples, evaluate the role of ecclesiology in youth ministry. (10 marks)
2. Young people are potentials to be developed and not a problem to be solved. Using contextual examples, discuss the significance of this statement for youth ministry. (10 marks)
3. Discuss the biblical foundations that can guide youth workers in responding to three key questions young people are ask. Give biblical references to support your answers. (10 marks)
4. Discuss the importance of youth ministry models in youth ministry. Give relevant examples to support your answers. (10 marks)
