

POLD703 – CULTIVATING SELF LEADERSHIP

FINAL EXAM 2021

Instructor: David Oginde (Rev) PhD

Instructions

1. Answer Question 1 and ANY TWO other questions.
 2. You are NOT to refer to any texts, notes, or any other material.
 3. You have two hours to complete the exam.
-

Question 1 (Compulsory)

You have received confidential information that two of your staff members, both married, have fallen into an extra-marital affair in the course of duty. Review all the Self-Leadership principles covered in this course and discuss how they apply to this case. How would you handle the situation from a Self-Leadership perspective?

Discuss in 1200 words.
10 marks

Question 2

You are the CEO of a large organisation where you have provided leadership for the last five years. You notice that recently, there has been a general disquiet against you from among your senior management, and it is threatening to get out of control. You suspect that it could be the work of your Board Chair who has never believed in your leadership. What leadership factors could be at play and how would you go about resolving the situation?

Give a scholarly response in 700-900 words.
5 marks

Question 3

To what extent would you say that persons with high internal locus of control may find it difficult to be religious, and how would this influence their practice of leadership?

Discuss in 700-900 words
5 marks

David Oginde

Question 4

Provide a scholarly discussion on the extent to which you think the COVID-19 Pandemic has presented a serious test on self-leadership for leaders at all levels.

Discuss in 700-900 words.

5 marks

Question 5

“Under three things the earth trembles, under four it cannot bear up: a servant who becomes king, a fool who is full of food, an unloved woman who is married, and a maidservant who displaces her mistress.” (Proverbs 30:21-23) Explain what Self-Leadership factors are at play in each of these cases.

Discuss in 700-900 words

5 marks